

The Library Association of Ireland (LAI)

The Library Association of Ireland (LAI) was founded in 1928 as the professional body representing libraries and librarianship in Ireland. The objectives of the Library Association of Ireland are to promote and develop high standards of librarianship and of library and information services in Ireland, and to secure greater co-operation between libraries.

Read More...