

Alice for Windows:

Alice for Windows an integrated library automation software package is the product of Softlink. Softlink has been exclusively dedicated to the development and support of advanced knowledge, content and integrated library management solutions for more than 25 years. Softlink's solutions are proven to optimize knowledge management and library operations. Softlink successfully contributes to the goals of organizations across the globe, currently supporting more than 10,000 organizations across 108 nations.

Developed By: Alice for windows is a product of softlink Established in Brisbane, Australia. Know More...