

SydneyPLUS

Library Automation SydneyPLUS is designed exclusively for special libraries such as business, legal and government librarians. It answers the needs of special librarians and offers a complete Web or Windows based solution. SydneyPLUS is the system of choice for the business, legal and government sectors. It allows librarians to empower end users, contributes to the organization's financial success and leverages new technologies and existing resources to their full potential.